Probe Live: Theistic Evolution

Dec. 5, 2025

Theistic Evolution is the belief that God used random, purposeless mutations and unguided natural selection to create the universe and our world. Some TE adherents believe God had to have used evolution as His means of creation. Theistic Evolution is completely unnecessary scientifically and has deep theological problems that most believers would turn away from if they understood what is being suggested. Molecular and cell biologist Dr. Ray Bohlin addressed both of these issues at our Probe Live event. The video is now online at this page.
