What is Art, Anyway?
April 30, 2019
When my dear friend Laura Helms told me about integrating her biblical worldview with how she teaches high school art, I was fascinated and asked her to write about her approach. For the last nine years I have had the privilege of teaching visual arts in the public school system …

What Difference Does the Resurrection Make?
April 16, 2019
Sue Bohlin suggests four ways the resurrection of Jesus can make a difference in the lives of believers today. What difference does the resurrection make—in our lives? It’s the most important event in all of human history. Where’s the “so what” for today? I meditated on this question for weeks, …

“How Can I Trust Christianity and the Bible Are True With So Many Changes and Translations?”

March 21, 2019
I recently visited the Museum of the Bible in Washington DC. I was excited to go there, because I thought I would view a lot of evidence for the faith of Christianity. While that was true, I was disappointed to leave the museum more confused than when I had arrived. …

Are Surveys Fake News?

March 14, 2019
On March 7, 2019, Probe’s Senior VP Steve Cable gave a one-hour presentation drawing on his decades of statistical research and insight to probe deeply into the trustworthiness of news containing references to surveys. In this message he shows why we should remain skeptical of what surveys purportedly indicate. Sometimes …
